Carver-Price Juniors Help Provide Christmas Dinners

The members of the Junior Class of the Carver-Price High School of Appomattox, were asked by their sponsor to join together in observing the true spirit of Christmas in all its beauty and significance. The class sponsored another project instead of the annual contribution for personal Christmas bags this year.

They agreed to each buy the Christmas dinners of two children in Grades 1 through 12, who perhaps were not financially able to buy their own. Other people hearing of the class' project also made donations to help the Juniors to buy dinners for more children.

Some of the Juniors, themselves, usually bring their lunches from home but they are unselfish enough to sacrifice fifty cents to see to it that two children will eat a well-balanced and a deliciously prepared dinner at Christmas time.

Those Juniors who participated were: Raymond Elliott, George Fleshman, Wayne Franklin, Winifred Hamlette, Jesse Lewis, Edward Lockett, Carlton Peunix, Samuel Prince, David Trent, Walter Turner, Robert Walker, Joseph Walker, Patricia Berry, Viola Chambers, Evelyn Ferguson, Barbara Davis, Wanda Goode, Delores Hamlette, Barbara Hunter, Catherine Johnson, Lois Johnson, Eva Lamberth, Delores Megginson, Doris Megginson, Cora Napier, Lucy Pankey, Alice Petty, Mable Robertson, Madeline Saunders, Nancy Trent, Carrie Woolridge, and Edna Wright.

It is hoped that the true spirit and meaning of the Christmas Season will be observed in some way by all people.

May the Spirit of Christmas and the Peace of the Yuletide Season dwell with you and yours.

Happy Hustlers

The Happy Hustlers 4-H Club met on December 8, 1964. The meeting was called to order. We than had the pledges of flags. We had a talk on giving some sick people in the hospital something for Christmas. It was motioned by Sherry McCraw to put a little gift on some hospital trays. We then said we would meet at Jane McCraw's house to work on them on Dec. 19, 1964

Sherry McCraw then told us about her 4-H record book. The meeting was adjourned.

Missionary Visits His Aunts Here
